Code	Objection
ARG	Lawyer Argument or Colloquy. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it is lawyer argument and not testimony of the witness.
CM	Cumulative. Epic objects to this deposition designation on the ground that it is duplicative and/or cumulative of other designations.
F	Foundation. Epic objects to this deposition designation on the ground that the foundation necessary for its admission has not been laid. (Fed. R. Evid. 602)
H	Hearsay. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it constitutes or contains hearsay. (Fed. R. Evid. 801-802)
I	Incomplete. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it does not contain the complete testimony. (Fed. R. Evid. 106) Epic generally objects to all designations that include only part of a question and/or part of an answer, or that do not include any question.
IR	Not Relevant. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it is not relevant to any issue to be decided in this case. (Fed. R. Evid. 401-402)
LO	Lay Opinion. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it constitutes or contains improper opinion by a lay witness. (Fed. R. Evid. 701-702)
NRT	Non-Responsive Testimony. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it includes statements that are not responsive to the question asked.
S	Speculative. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it includes statements that are speculative as to matters of fact or law.
SCOPE	Beyond Scope of 30(b)(6) Notice or Topics. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it is outside the scope of the topics on which the witness was designated as a corporate representative.
403	FRE 403. Epic objects to this deposition designation because any probative value it has is substantially outweighed by a danger of one or more of the following: unfair prejudice, confusing the issues, misleading the jury, undue delay, wasting time, or needlessly presenting cumulative evidence. (Fed. R. Evid. 403)
VA	Vague and Ambiguous. Epic objects to this deposition designation because it includes vague and indefinite statements.
L	Leading. Epic objects as an improper leading question.
ICD	Improper Counter Designation. Epic objects to this counter-designation because it is not necessary or relevant to be considered along with Epic's affirmative designation.
